Assistant Professor of Supply Chain Management/Operations Management

Arkansas State University's Neil Griffin College of Business is accepting applications for a tenure-track assistant professor in supply chain management/operations management for the 2019-2020 academic year. Duties include research, teaching, and service consistent with professional standards and educational goals of the university. Teaching may include undergraduate and MBA courses in supply chain management/logistics, operations management, business analytics, and/or business modeling.

An earned Ph.D. in supply chain management, operations management, or a closely related field from an AACSB-accredited school is required. ABD from an AACSB-accredited school will be considered if completed by August, 2019. A record of quality teaching and demonstrated research potential is also required. Research, teaching, and professional experience in supply chain management/logistics, operations, and analytics/modeling is valued.

Please submit a cover letter, CV, teaching philosophy, and contact information for three references with application on our career website at <https://chj.tbe.taleo.net/chj05/ats/careers/v2/jobSearch?org=ARKASTAT2&cws=40>. References will be sent an automated email request for letters of reference. Unofficial transcripts may be attached online at time of application and will be required upon being chosen for a campus visit prior to interview date.
