CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

This conference connects healthcare researchers and practitioners to actively discuss relevant challenges in healthcare operations that impact outcomes. This year, we are specifically highlighting responsiveness in healthcare operations. This helps all of us to increase the relevance of our research and develop innovative, practical and sustainable solutions that improve the operations of healthcare organizations. The conference is meant to complement the POMS annual meeting (May 4-7, 2018) by giving participants a chance to learn from practitioners and researchers and allows time for brainstorming new research ideas and approaches to improving the effectiveness of healthcare systems.

OPENING KEYNOTE PRESENTATION – RESPONSIVENESS DURING A NATURAL DISASTER

Rock D. Morille, P.E, M.B.A. is Vice President for Facility Services at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas. Rock started his career at Baylor College of Medicine as the Facilities Mechanical Engineer in August 1988. His responsibilities range from strategic facilities planning—managing the Facilities Master Plan, to capital project construction, real estate/lease management, everyday maintenance activities and disaster preparedness and recovery.

PANEL DISCUSSION: RESPONSIVENESS IN HEALTHCARE OPERATIONS

Hear from hospital leaders working every day to improve hospital operations:

John Bingham, Vice President of Performance Improvement, MD Anderson

Daran Guas, Director of Strategic Planning, Memorial Hermann Health System

Peter Killoran MD, Director of Medical Informatics, Memorial Hermann Texas Medical Center

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSIONS

Discussions led by practitioners and process improvement experts in breakout groups will be held. Discussion leader(s) present operational challenges they face, and some solutions they have implemented. Researchers provide insights from the literature and suggest potential research designs.

RESEARCH IN PRACTICE PRESENTATIONS

Presentations of research projects that address practical operational issues in healthcare, have significant practitioner involvement, generate new knowledge or methods for addressing current and important healthcare problems, and improve practice in healthcare organizations.
