

Job Title: Visiting Assistant Professor

Department: Decision Sciences/Operations Management

Adelphi University is a private comprehensive university of 9,000 students, located in Garden City, on Long Island, New York, within 15 miles of JFK Airport and Manhattan in downtown New York City.

The Robert B. Willumstad School of Business at Adelphi University invites applications for a visiting position at the assistant professor level beginning August 2016. Responsibilities include teaching courses in operations management, supply chain management, technology management, and statistics at the undergraduate and Masters level. The appointment is initially for one academic year. The Willumstad School is accredited by AACSB International.

Job Requirements:

The successful candidate must have a record of strong teaching experience and evidence of scholarly work. Professional experience desirable. While a doctorate (PhD/DBA) in a relevant discipline is preferred, active ABDs will be considered.

Depending on qualifications, teaching load may range from 9 to 12 credit hours a semester. Classes may be scheduled on-campus in Garden City or at off-campus sites, in the day or evening, and on Saturdays.

How To Apply:

Please apply online at www.adelphi.edu/positions/faculty. Attach your cover letter, CV, and a list of references when applying.

Adelphi University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer committed to building a diverse workforce and strongly encourages applications from women, under-represented groups, members of the LGBT community, people with disabilities and veterans.
