

University of California, Berkeley
Associate/Full Professor and Faculty Director of the Institute for Business & Social Impact – Haas
School of Business

The Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley, invites applications for a tenured faculty position in any field related to business & public policy, economic analysis & policy, finance, management of organizations, operations and information technology management, or real estate and urban economics, with an expected start date of July 1, 2019.

The incumbent will serve a three to five year term (renewable) as the Faculty Director of the Institute for Business & Social Impact in lieu of 50% of his/her teaching obligation for this duration. The Institute for Business & Social Impact works to build a more equitable, inclusive and sustainable society; to train leaders who can work across traditional boundaries between nonprofit organizations, for-profit enterprise and the public sector to achieve social impact; and to promote social entrepreneurs to create new solutions to social and environmental challenges. Please visit <http://haas.berkeley.edu/IBSI/index.html> for more information on the Institute. The Faculty Director has primary responsibility for overseeing and expanding the research, instructional and other programmatic initiatives within the Institute, and for coordinating the activities of faculty, students and external constituencies involved in the Institute.

The Haas School of Business is committed to recruiting the most diverse students, faculty and staff which enhances our mission, community, and academic excellence. We seek to provide an inclusive environment where everyone is treated fairly and has equal access to opportunities, a commitment that lies at the heart of Berkeley's mission as a public university.
