

Associate/Full Professor in Supply Chain Management (Tenured/Tenure Track)
Department of Information Technology & Operations Management
College of Business, Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, FL.

The Department of Information Technology & Operations Management (ITOM) in the College of Business at Florida Atlantic University (FAU) is seeking applicants for a senior faculty position in Supply Chain Management (SCM). The rank for this position will be at the senior Associate or Full Professor level, commensurate with a candidate's qualifications and record.

The Professor will assist the ITOM Department in leveraging FAU's South Florida location, which is one of the country's most dynamic areas of international trade and transportation, by developing a SCM program.

She or he will be expected to take a leadership role in the research activities of the ITOM Department including mentoring PhD students.

Teaching responsibilities will include instruction at the undergraduate and graduate level as well as in the development of executive, graduate and undergraduate programs in SCM.

Service responsibilities will focus on building productive relationships with potential stakeholders both within the University and across the South Florida business community.

Qualifications:

A doctoral degree in SCM or closely related area in the Operations Management field from an AACSB accredited institution is required by time of appointment (August 2016.)

Additional required qualifications include a demonstrated record of well-cited publications in high-quality refereed journals with an ongoing research program in SCM as well as a demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching and program development.

In addition, applicants must have a strong national and international scholarly reputation.

The ideal candidate will have demonstrated ability to develop and expand relationships with supply chain management executives, local companies, and relevant professional organizations.

All applicants must apply electronically to the currently posted position (Position #991083) on the Office of Human Resources' job website (<https://jobs.fau.edu>) by completing the Faculty, Administrative, Managerial & Professional Position Application and submitting the related documents. When completing the online application, please upload the following: a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and copies of official transcripts scanned into an electronic format.

A background check will be required for the candidate selected for this position. This position is subject to funding.
