

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT URBANA-CHAMPAIGN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Department of Business Administration
Non-Tenure Track Position in Operations Management

The Department of Business Administration invites applications from qualified candidates for one or more non-tenure track faculty positions (full or part-time) in the area of Operations Management. The position will begin August 16, 2017 or January 1, 2018. Salary is competitive and commensurate with rank and experience.

The applicant should be able to teach undergraduate and graduate level courses in operations management, project management, supply chain management, statistics, or related subjects. The preferred candidate will have a Ph.D. in a relevant field (a graduate degree and extensive professional experience may also be considered) and demonstrated ability to teach undergraduate and graduate business students effectively.

For full consideration, please create your candidate profile at <http://jobs.illinois.edu> and select the position for which you are applying, then upload your required documents that must include a letter of intent stating the area of expertise, course-teaching capabilities, and curriculum vitae, evidence of past teaching, and names and contact information for three references by June 16, 2017. Interviews, inquiries and hires may take place prior to the closing date. Applications will not be accepted via mail or email.

For further information regarding application procedures, contact Rebecca Heid heid@illinois.edu or 217.333.9396. You may also visit <http://business.illinois.edu/ba/> and <https://business.illinois.edu/ba/areas/operations-management/> for further information about the department and the area.

The University of Illinois conducts criminal background checks on all job candidates upon acceptance of a contingent offer.
