

TENURE-TRACK FACULTY POSITION IN OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT

Applications are invited for tenure-track faculty positions at the assistant professor level in Operations Management (OM) at the Lee Kong Chian School of Business (LKCSB), Singapore Management University (SMU). Applicants must have (or be near completion of) a Ph.D. in OM or a closely related discipline. Applicants are expected to have a proven track record in research and evidence of developing research maturity.

Today, LKCSB is a dynamic and culturally diverse business school with about 3000 students and over 120 full-time faculty members, located in the heart of downtown Singapore. The school offers a comprehensive range of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes (including MBA, MSc, EMBA, Ph.D.) and executive education. The school is ranked 6th in Asia and 49th worldwide in the latest UT Dallas Top 100 Business School Research Rankings. The school's EMBA programme is ranked 33rd globally in the Financial Times Executive MBA Ranking 2022.

The OM group in LKCSB has 19 faculty members with diverse research expertise. The group is looking for candidates with excellent research profiles and real-world impact, preferably working in the area of analytics (AI, machine learning), entrepreneurship, or sustainability.

All applications should be submitted using the following link:
