School of Management

In House Title: Assistant Professor (10-month)
Department: Operations Management and Strategy
FTE: 1.0

Position Summary:

The School of Management at the University at Buffalo (State University of New York, SUNY at Buffalo) invites applications for a full-time tenure-track Assistant Professor (10-month) position in Supply Chain and Operations Management. The appointment will begin in August 2024. Candidates are expected to pursue high-quality research and have a strong commitment to the development of the Department's academic programs at undergraduate, MBA, MS, and Ph.D. levels, in terms of teaching and leadership. Candidates are expected to contribute to university-wide interdisciplinary research and support the educational mission of the UB RENEW Institute and the Institute for Sustainable Transportation & Logistics.

The successful candidate will have:

- Applicants should have completed a Ph.D. degree in Operations Management, Management Science, or a related field by August 2024.
- Applicants should have demonstrated a clear and strong potential for high-quality scholarly research that is disseminated in leading research outlets. Applicants will ideally conduct research in the domain of Supply Chain and Operations Management and publish in top-tier journals. Research methods include but are not restricted to operations research, game theory, empirical methods, behavioral experiments, data analytics, and machine learning.
- Initial teaching duties will be introductory undergraduate and graduate operations management courses, and evidence of effective teaching experience is desirable.

For full consideration, applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vita, research statement, and teaching statement by November 30, 2023. Applications will be considered until the position is filled.

To be considered for a conference interview at the INFORMS Annual Meeting in Phoenix, applicants are encouraged to send their cover letter, curriculum vitae, research statement, and the job market paper to Dr. Mike Mingcheng Wei at mcwei@buffalo.edu by October 12, 2023. A full application can be submitted later via <https://www.ubjobs.buffalo.edu/postings/45471> (Posting number: F230230).

The search committee is especially interested in candidates who, through their research, teaching, and/or service, will contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community.
