

JOB POSTING TITLE: Lecturer or Associate Lecturer in Supply Chain Management

Unleash Your Potential With Us

As a next-generation public research institution, we are an inclusive community of thinkers, doers, creators, innovators, healers, and leaders striving to shape the future and solve the world's most challenging problems. No matter what your role is, when you join Knight Nation, you become an integral part of our mission to become a university for the future. You'll be met with opportunities to connect and collaborate with uniquely talented faculty, staff, and students across 13 colleges and multiple campuses and regional locations. That means greater challenges to tackle, more meaningful opportunities to grow, and rewarding experiences that go beyond a paycheck.

The Opportunity

The University of Central Florida (UCF) Department of Marketing invites applications for a 9-month, non-tenure earning Lecturer or Associate Lecturer position in Supply Chain Management. The anticipated start date is August 2024. Responsibilities entail teaching core undergraduate and MBA supply chain management courses on the UCF Main Campus and the Downtown Campus. There is also an expectation for continuing contributions in research and service per college and department standards. Candidates must possess a record of publication productivity to be evaluated as academically qualified by UCF/AACSB standards. Teaching, research, and service record must be commensurate with rank.

More information about the UCF College of Business and the Department of Marketing can be found at <http://business.ucf.edu/departments-schools/marketing/>.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Lecturer: Doctorate from an AACSB-accredited institution in supply chain management or a closely related discipline, e.g., marketing, management, productions/operations management, operations research, industrial engineering.
- Associate Lecturer: Doctorate from an AACSB-accredited institution in supply chain management or a closely related discipline, e.g., marketing, management, productions/operations management, operations research, industrial engineering. Must be recognized for teaching excellence via college- or university-level awards, have demonstrated leadership in curriculum development or revision, faculty mentor in student-led organizations, supervision of Honors thesis, and/or participation and leadership roles in teaching workshops.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Prior success in delivering instruction to large enrollment courses.
- Demonstrated success in graduate teaching.
- Engaged in an active research stream leading to publications in peer-reviewed journals.
- Experience in curriculum and/or program development.

Additional Application Materials Required:

UCF requires all applications and supporting documents be submitted electronically through the Human Resources employment opportunities website, <https://www.ucf.edu/jobs/>. In addition to the online application, candidates should upload a cover letter, a current curriculum vitae, and a list with contact information for three (3) professional references who may be asked to provide a professional letter of reference.

NOTE: Please have all documents ready when applying so they can be simultaneously uploaded. Once the online submission process is finalized, the system does not allow applicants to submit additional documents later. The selected candidate will be required to submit official transcripts (and, as applicable, U.S. degree equivalency evaluations) documenting the conferral of their qualifying academic credentials.

Consideration of applicants will begin immediately; however, applications will be accepted until the position is closed.

Please contact Dr. Andrew Johnson if you have questions at andrew.johnson2@ucf.edu.

Who Are We?

Founded in 1963 to fuel the region's talent pipeline and support the growing U.S. space program, UCF is built to make a better future for our students and society. It's one of the reasons U.S. News & World Report ranks UCF among the nation's top 20 most innovative colleges, while Forbes, Kiplinger, and The Princeton Review rank us a best-value university. UCF is one of 14 universities nationwide designated as both a Hispanic-Serving Institution and a Research 1 university. With 13 colleges, including a fully accredited College of Medicine, UCF offers more than 240-degree programs between its main campus, downtown campus, hospitality campus, academic health sciences campus, and 11 UCF Connect centers located throughout the region. In addition, UCF extends its reach to communities in and beyond Central Florida by offering complete online programs leading to bachelor's degrees, master's degrees, Ph.D.'s, certificates, and more.

The University of Central Florida is proud to be a smoke-free campus and an E-Verify employer. Unless explicitly stated on the job posting, it is UCF's expectation that an employee of UCF will reside in Florida as of the date the employment begins.

Additional Requirements related to Research Positions

Pursuant to Florida State Statute 1010.35, prior to offering employment to certain individuals in research-related positions, UCF is required to conduct additional screening. Applicants subject to additional screening include any citizen of a foreign country who is not a permanent resident of the U.S., or who is a citizen or permanent resident but is affiliated with or has had at least 1 year of higher education, employment, or training in China, Cuba, Iran, Russia, North Korea, Syria, or Venezuela.

The additional screening requirements only apply to employment in research-related positions, including, but not limited to faculty positions (including employed visiting positions), graduate positions, individuals compensated by research grants or contract funds, postdoctoral scholar positions, and undergraduate positions.
