

香港中文大學
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Applications are invited for:-

Department of Decisions, Operations and Technology
Professor(s) / Associate Professor(s) / Assistant Professor(s) (Operations Management)
(Ref: 2400027V) (Closing date: December 31, 2024)

The Department of Decisions, Operations and Technology comprises over 40 faculty members specializing in three research areas: Operations Management, Management Information Systems, and Business Economics. The Department now invites applications for tenure-track faculty positions in the area of Operations Management commencing Fall 2025. Applicants for all professoriate ranks will be considered.

Applicants should have (i) a PhD degree in Operations Management/Operations Research, or other related disciplines (by the time reporting for duty); (ii) high competence in research and demonstrated research interest in, but not limited to, business analytics, revenue management, service operations, supply chain management, and (iii) strong commitment to teaching and services. The appointee(s) will teach undergraduate and postgraduate courses offered by the Department. Appointments will normally be made on contract basis for up to three years initially, which, subject to performance and mutual agreement, may lead to a longer-term appointment or substantiation later. Senior applicants should have an outstanding track record of research and teaching accomplishments. CUHK Business School provides internationally competitive remuneration, generous research support and funding, and relocation assistance for international faculty relocating to Hong Kong.
