

Position Announcement

Clinical Assistant Professor Position in Supply Chain & Operations Management Mitch Daniels School of Business Purdue University

The Supply Chain & Operations Management Group in the Daniels School of Business (DSB), Purdue University seeks applications for a clinical assistant professor position starting Fall 2025.

Candidates must demonstrate evidence of teaching and knowledge in professional practice in the field of Supply Chain and Operations Management. In addition, candidates are expected to have scholarly accomplishments with a demonstrated or emerging prominence at the regional or national level. A completed Ph.D. in supply chain and operations management, industrial engineering, computer science, data science, statistics, or a related area is required by the starting date.

Responsibilities of the position include teaching a broad range of undergraduate and graduate courses in Supply Chain and Operations Management. Additional responsibilities may include contributing to various degree programs, working with the undergraduate and graduate program offices for student admission and advising, advising student associations, and establishing company relationships for experiential learning.

The Supply Chain & Operations Management faculty in the DSB is a vibrant group, fostering a supportive and productive environment. For more information about the group and our faculty, please visit our website at <https://business.purdue.edu/academics/scom/>

The search committee is being chaired by Mengshi Lu, to whom all inquiries should be directed to: mengshilu@purdue.edu. Applicants should submit 1) a full vita, 2) evidence of teaching experiences and effectiveness and/or effectiveness in administration, and 3) a cover letter to: https://careers.purdue.edu/job/Clinical-Assistant-Professor-of-Management-in-Supply-Chain-&-Operations-Management/34008-en_US/. Applicants should also submit three references to: <https://webapps.krannert.purdue.edu/KARS/Apply/HyCA1pMkY8>

The newly launched Daniels School of Business will build upon Purdue's mission as a land-grant university to provide affordable and accessible education while combining technological excellence and business expertise. A background check will be required for employment in the position.

The review process will begin on October 14, 2024, and applications will be accepted until this position is filled. A background check is required for employment for the positions.

About the Organization

As Indiana's land grant institution established in 1869, Purdue is one of the nation's leading public research universities. Located in West Lafayette, IN, Purdue offers faculty a great work and non-work environment. Recently recognized as one of the safest cities in Indiana, West Lafayette is centrally located to a number of major business centers including Indianapolis (1 hour), Chicago (2 hours), Cincinnati (3 hours), Louisville (3 hours), Columbus (3.5 hours), and St. Louis (4 hours). Purdue's Research Park is home to over 300 business start-ups, many of which originated from faculty innovations. DSB offers undergraduate programs, executive, online, and weekend MBA programs, numerous specialized Master's programs, and doctoral programs.

For a complete list of benefits, please visit our website at:

<https://www.purdue.edu/hr/Benefits/>

Purdue University is an EOE/AA employer. All individuals, including minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.