Job Summary:

Job Duties:

VISITING FACULTY POSITION IN ANALYTICS AND OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT

The Freeman College of Management at Bucknell University seeks a full-time visiting faculty member (non-tenure track) qualified to teach undergraduate courses in one or more areas of business analytics, quantitative modeling, and/or operations management. The appointment will start in August 2025 and last for up to three academic years (August 2025 - May 2028).

The Freeman College, an AACSB-accredited unit, offers innovative professional education in the context of one of the nation's leading liberal arts universities. We believe an education combining technical skills and deep intellectual exploration is the best preparation for thoughtful and capable leaders. Thus, we seek faculty members capable of contributing to this mission. We also embrace the teacher-scholar model. Although visiting faculty are not required to engage in research, we genuinely appreciate those who contribute thoughtfully to both teaching and scholarship in their fields. The teaching load for visiting faculty members is six classes per year. After the first year, visiting faculty members will join all other faculty in sharing student advising responsibilities.

A record of excellence in undergraduate teaching is required. Qualified candidates will have completed or be near completion of a Ph.D. or equivalent terminal degree (DBA, ScD). Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience.

FREEMAN COLLEGE MAJORS AT BUCKNELL

Our innovative curriculum and world-class teacher-scholars earned Freeman College a consistent top 20 ranking in Poets & Quants' annual survey of undergraduate business programs. The approximately 720 students in the Freeman College of Management may choose among five majors offered by highly interdisciplinary departments that combine courses in the various disciplines of management with offerings in the arts, humanities, natural and social sciences, and engineering. ## BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

Bucknell University is a private, highly ranked, primarily undergraduate, national liberal arts institution that also offers strong professional programs in engineering, management, education, and music. Bucknell University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The university believes that students learn best in a diverse, inclusive community and is therefore committed to academic excellence through diversity in its faculty, staff, and students. Applications from members of groups that have been historically underrepresented in higher education are encouraged. Bucknell is committed to creating a climate that fosters inclusion, growth, and development for a diverse student body, and seeks candidates who are also committed to these goals.

Bucknell is located in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, on the banks of the Susquehanna River. The Lewisburg area offers a combination of outdoor recreation opportunities and small-town amenities. In addition to the cultural and athletic events offered at the University and in town, the region offers strong schools and medical facilities, and an affordable cost of living. Bucknell is about three hours from Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore, and Washington, D.C.
